Still Beating the Air.

William Marion Ready, in the St.
Louis Mirror, says:

Candidate Hughes still continues to beat the air aimlessly. His speeches have added nothing to the futile fault-finding of his speech of acceptance.
It is easy to stand by and find fault with what a man is doing, without giving him the key to doing better.
This is Hughes. He merely grumbles and kicks.

The Mexican policy of Wilson especially excites his opposition, yet he does not outline a policy which might or might not have worked. It is difficult to deal with political chaos, ignorance and lawlessness in a way to please anybody. It would be interesting, although not convincing, to know what Mr. Hughes would have done in similar circumstances. In finding fault with Wilson, Mr. Hughes apparently misses the point that the president of Mexico was virtually dealing with a huge mob, to put which down by force, would gain this country nothing and lose much.

Is Mr. Hughes afraid to venture even an alternative theory in opposition to the Wilson practice?

A Wilson Convert.

"Permit me to congratulate The Republican upon its discussion in regard to President Wilson and the administration. Its course bespeaks the way of independence and honesty before that of subservience and partisanship," said Edward Kemble, of Beverly, Mass., in a letter to the editor of the Springfield Republican.

"I write," continued Mr. Kemble, "as a lifelong Republican until these very recent years—a business man, not a politician."

"If Mr. Hughes is elected he will have been elected by Theodore Roosevelt, who will become, I presume, secretary of state; but whether he may hold office or not, he will be the governor of Hughes' administration. This will be lamentable. Theodore Roosevelt has been a power for good, but he has lost his grip."

Where Republicans Rule.

(St. Louis Post-Dispatch.)
Price McGinnis of 812 South Tenth street, a negro city employee, struck Julius Bongner, a Democratic clerk, as Bongner was leaving the polling place at 11:07 Chouteau avenue, going to lunch at 11:30 A. M. Tuesday, August 1st. McGinnis is a watcher at the polling place and earlier in the day quarreled with Bongner.

He was arrested and Bongner was sent to the city dispensary. A police report said his jaw was fractured.

Auto Thief Sells Two Fords in Flat River.

(From the Lead Belt News.)

Steve Halliday is in jail in St. Louis as the result of his traffic in stolen automobiles and raising money on a machine which was already mortgaged. He sold two Fords in Flat River. Both cars had been stolen in St. Louis. George May gave him $250 for one and O. W. Swafford separated himself from $250 for the other.
John Roberts, cashier of the St. Francisco County Bank at Farmington, was stung to the tune of $255. Halliday mortgaged a Hudson car to him for $250 and cashed a worthless $50 check at the bank. The Hudson car had not been stolen but had been purchased by Halliday on the time payment plan.
He owed $400 on it at the time he gave Mr. Roberts the mortgage. We understand Mr. Roberts has secured possession of the Hudson car by assuming responsibility for the $400 mortgage.

The money paid out by May and Swafford is a total loss, Halliday hav-

Everybody Loves a Good Loser.

(From the Centralia Courier.)

Licked to a frazzle—that's us, John L. Sullivan knocked us through the ropes the first round. We took the count Saturday. We were out-gener-aled, out-winded, out-fought and outclassed. The Sedalian went through like a dose of salts. Never having tried our speed before, we thought perhaps we could run a bit. We were mistaken. Any old spavined pig could run rings around us. We did our little darndest, but the "dry hobs" tripped us up. John L. Sullivan had wings on his feet. He also had a loyal lot of rooters whooping it up for him. Most of the state candidates were cheering him on. And take it from us, "he was going some." Not that it took any wonderful burst of speed to distance us—but to run away with that fine lot of newspaper boys backing us—well, that was some class.
John L. and here's tipping our hat to you. We want every friend of ours to shuck his coat for John L. We couldn't defeat him, so let's join him.
We are for him from the top of the bell until he comes under the wire a winner in November. Fall in line, boys, and the ticket from president to constable.

Only One.

The Record in Ironton is a Unique One.

If the reader has a "bad back" or any kidney ills and is looking for an effective kidney medicine, better depend on the remedy endorsed by people you know. Doan's Kidney Pills have given great satisfaction in such cases. Ironton citizens testify to this.
Here is a case of it:
J. R. Harris, Knob St., Ironton, says:
"My kidneys caused me a lot of suffering. I had backache and rheumatic pains in my limbs and joints.
At times I could hardly stoop and it was just as difficult to straighten. My kidneys acted too freely and the secretions were scanty and painful in passage. Finally I used Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got from Arcadia Valley Drug Co., and they not only strengthened my back, but regulated the action of my kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills are the best kidney medicine I ever used and the only one that ever gave me relief."
